The screenshot shows the website interface for the Center for Project Innovation. The main navigation bar includes the logo, a search bar, a 'Talk to us' button, and links for 'OPEN', 'Get Certified', 'Group Training', 'Free Resources', 'FAQs', and 'About'. A 'Login / Sign up' link is also present. The central focus is the 'Login' form, which offers social media login options (Facebook, Google, LinkedIn), a standard username/email and password login, and a 'Remember Me' checkbox. A red arrow points from the top text to the 'Login' form, and a red circle highlights the 'Not a member yet? Register now.' link at the bottom of the form. The footer contains the logo, a list of 'Courses' (OPEN online learning, Get certified, Masterclasses, Group training, Military), 'Resources' (Tools and templates, Featured articles, Code of ethics, About us, FAQs), and 'Contact us' information (Contact us, ask@project.info, +1 (813) 508-4974, Verify certificate) along with social media icons.

OFFICER

A Certified Project Officer (CPO) is a fundamental contributor to any project team.

They have proven via examination that they can employ project management knowledge in a wide variety of settings, taking responsibility for their own work performance.

Step 1 of 3 - Knowledge

You can evidence your knowledge by successfully completing OPEN, the Center's 100% free online project education program, or attending one or more of our eligible workshops.

If that is your intent, close this form and your knowledge will be automatically recognised in your application when you are complete.

Alternately, you can provide evidence below of successfully passing project management coursework of at least 25 hours delivered by other public or private education providers.

Note that the course must explicitly educate on an aspect or all of 'project management'. Academic completion of a workplace or industry project and/or general management studies are not eligible.
